

Your Dog's Packing List

- Any prescription medications your dog takes as well as veterinary records for chronic conditions in case of emergency treatment
- Immunization Records
- Food Bowl
- Water Bowl
- Clip-on water bowl for hikes
- Dog backpack for hikes
- Food, portioned out for trip duration
- Bottled water
- Blanket
- Bed
- Crate if your dog needs one
- Harness or restraint system for vehicle
- Chew Toys
- Ball or other favorite toys
- Training Treats
- ID on collar with Cell phone number and e-mail address
- Leash
- Extra Collar, ID and leash
- Poop bags
- Dog life vest for beach or lake
- Photograph of your dog in case he is lost (or create a lost dog sign with your cell phone and upload it to an online email account.)
- Your dog's microchip number
- Your veterinarian's phone number
- A Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (CVI) or health certificate if crossing state lines
- Addresses, phone numbers of veterinary clinics at destination and along route
- Address and phone number of a kennel at your destination
- Dog shampoo
- 2 or 3 old towels for cleanup
- Sheets for covering hotel beds
- Rug Doctor® Urine Eliminator for cleaning up any accidents
- Flashlight
- Plastic bags, trash bags, carpet cleaning solution, paper towels
- First aid kit:
 - Gauze sponges and first aid adhesive tape
 - Stretch gauze bandage
 - Vetrap self-adherent bandage
 - Triple antibiotic ointment
 - Saline eye wash
 - Betadine or iodine wash for cleaning wounds
 - With vet's approval:
 - Antihistamine for allergies, motion sickness medicine, anti-diarrhea medicine (check with vet for proper dosage).
 - A muzzle – even the most loving dog can behave unpredictably when hurt
 - Tweezers
 - Scissors
 - 1% Hydrocortisone cream
 - Disposable rubber gloves

Brought to you by DogTipper's Texas with Dogs guidebook
Published by Open Road, distributed by Simon & Schuster

www.TexaswithDogs.com and www.DogTipper.com

Thanks to our book tour sponsor: Rug Doctor®!

RugDoctor
Clean deeper. Feel better.